July 2021

We know that you want to see the best for Rush County. That's why we want to see YOU at the Community Based Action Planning (CBAP) informational meeting on Monday, July 12th, 6:30–8pm at the RCHS Laughlin Center. Check out the CBAP website, scroll down select "Rush County", register and start the "Preparation Phase". Invite a friend, or ten, and please share the word! We need excitement and ideas from people like you, Alisa!

2021 Cycle I Grantees Announced

Coming out of more than a year of the pandemic has made many of us realize how valuable arts and cultural experiences, Internet access and its navigation and public spaces like libraries truly are to our sense of community and well-being. Thanks to your generous gifts to Community Grants funds, the 2021 Cycle I grantees will ensure that opportunities like these will be available to the residents of Rush County now and in the future.

New Fund: Molly Spaeth Fund for Transformation and Well-Being

The Molly Spaeth Fund for Transformation and Well-Being has been established in Molly's memory. It will provide support for projects and programming that improve the social and/or mental well-being and betterment of individuals in Rush County. The outpouring of support for the Spaeth family and this fund has been incredibly touching.

Meet the RCCF Board: Karen Brashaber

Did you know it's more common to be born on February 29th than on December 25th? Maybe that's what makes RCCF Board Member, Karen Brashaber so special. We think there's more to it than that, though.

Meet RCCF Intern: Riley Sheehan

For the past three summers, we've been fortunate enough to have an ace up our sleeve – intern, Riley Sheehan, through the support from Lilly Endowment Inc. While Riley herself tends to stay behind the scenes, her work in support of RCCF and our community is front and center.

What Will Your Legacy Be?

Is there an area of local life that you feel passionate about? Arts and culture, health, children or something else? Do you have a favorite local organization? Or maybe you want your support to go where it's needed most.

When you make a legacy gift to RCCF, we will make sure your wishes are fulfilled.
